Assembly Nears Vote on Seating of Red China

POLITICAL CONTROVERSY BOILS UNABATED DESPITE RESIGNATION OF ADAMS

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—While millions watched with varying reactions, Sherman Adams bowed out Monday night as the man closest to the throne in the Eisenhower administration.

Still insisting "I have done no wrong," the presidential assistant yielded to renewed pressure from Republican candidates and continuing criticism from Democrats of his relations with Bernard Goldfine, the Boston millionaire and long-time friend from whom he acknowledged receiving gifts.

Announcing his resignation in a 10-minute nationwide radio-TV appearance, President Eisenhower's top aide said, "I must give full consideration to the effect of my continuing presence on the public scene."

SHERMAN ADAMS

But political controversy boiled unabated over the "corruption" issue, and much of the comment indicated a belief Adams had acted too late to remove it from the November election campaign.

Adams gave his listeners no hint how quickly the "orderly process" of his resignation would take him from his watchdog quarters next to Eisenhower's White House office.

Neither was there any positive indication from administration sources about a successor who will move into a spot from which his political enemies often said Adams was running the government.

In immediate speculation, however, the name of Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, president of the American Red Cross, stood near the top. Gruenther has served before as Eisenhower's good right arm.

Eisenhower accepted Adams' resignation "with sadness," but the President's chagrin at Adams' self-imposed fadeout obviously was not shared by Republican congressional candidates. They breathed sighs of relief.

Democrats made it clear Adams' exit will not diminish their gleeful attack on what they call "corruption" within the Eisenhower administration.

Adams' job pays $22,500 a year. Gruenther receives $30,000 a year as head of the Red Cross.

The Democrats asked for time—probably to be taken by National Chairman Paul M. Butler—to reply to Adams' statement that to stay on "might possibly diminish the chances which my party has of regaining control of the Congress in the November election."

Gen. Chehab Takes Office In Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Gen. Fuad Chehab was sworn in today as the third president of independent Lebanon and immediately pledged the withdrawal of American troops.

Chehab was elected by nearly all factions of Parliament July 31 as a compromise choice to end the political tension which erupted into open rebellion more than four months ago.

American Marines and Army troops began arriving here July 15 in response to the call of Chehab's predecessor, President Camille Chamoun, who charged that Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic was attempting to overthrow Chamoun's pro-Western regime.

Shooting again broke out in Beirut Monday night on the eve of the inauguration, and tension again climbed after a lull since Chehab's election. A curfew around the clock was in force as a result of mass kidnappings by political factions.

Gen. Chehab, the former army chief of staff, spoke to a special session of the Lebanese Parliament. He said his government will attempt to remove the tension between Lebanon and "some of its brother Arab countries."

Modern Lancelot Fails in Attempt to Win Gwenivere

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP)—Sir Lancelot's attempt to win back Gwenivere failed Monday, despite a white horse.

James C. Hamm and his wife, Ruth, called each other Lancelot and Gwenivere in the early days of their marriage 20 years ago.

Hamm spells it that way instead of "Guinevere."

Mrs. Hamm filed for divorce from the 42-year-old real estate broker Sept. 2, leaving their home at nearby Belvedere with their two children.

Hamm rode a white horse down the main street of this San Francisco suburb and hitched it to a parking meter while he entered the Albert building to meet his wife and her attorney.

The horse bore a cardboard shield reading: "Sir Lancelot's white charger. Gwenivere, I love you."

Gwenivere didn't see the white charger—she entered and left the building by a rear door—and she went on to Superior Court and asked for temporary alimony and child support.

Lancelot wasn't so chivalrous last July, she testified, saying he kicked her in the stomach.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori awarded her $375 a month and custody of the children. Hamm telephoned the stable to come after the horse.

Southern Executives Face Conflict on Integration At Meeting in Lexington

By PAUL R. JORDAN

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Southern governors were confronted today with confusion and conflict over a positive stand, for the record, on integrating schools.

At least two governors have said they will introduce opposing resolutions for consideration at their annual conference.

A formal expression on integration emerged as an issue when Republican Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin of Maryland proposed a resolution which, in effect, would put Dixie governors on record as favoring it.

Georgia's Democratic Gov. Marvin Griffin came back with a proposal urging the conference to protect the government "of the several states against all federal encroachment."

There was no indication when and if these resolutions actually would come up for a vote of the 14 governors attending the conference.

But one of them, Gov. A. B. Chandler of Kentucky, foresaw no chance of a majority agreeing one way or the other on integration.

The South's most burning issue, absent from the business agenda, got hotter Monday when Gov. Elroy Collins of Florida said it should be resolved by Congress as the first order of business next January.

Collins told the opening business session the current pattern of integration conflict, if continued, could lead to a national catastrophe.

Elaborating at a news conference, he said President Eisenhower could organize commissions of local citizens with authority to resolve the problem at that level. He said federal courts "simply are not equipped to determine local problems."

"When integration injures racial relations," he said, "I don't think it should be coerced upon any community."

One function of his proposed commissions, Collins said, could be to serve in an advisory capacity to the courts.

Auto Industry Awaits Decision Of Chrysler Corp.

DETROIT (AP)—The auto industry waited today to see whether Chrysler Corp. would reach contract agreement with the United Auto Workers or whether it would await results of the UAW-General Motors negotiations.

UAW President Walter Reuther, who has personally directed his union's meetings with Chrysler since Monday, told Chrysler Monday it had until noon Wednesday to settle.

If no Chrysler agreement is reached by that hour, Reuther said he would "put the Chrysler talks on the back burner and let them simmer" while he turned his entire attention to GM talks.

Reuther's auto workers have set Sept. 30 as a strike date at GM if no new contract is worked out to replace the old three-year pact that ran out Memorial Day weekend. They also plan to strike Chrysler if contract talks fail, with the strike date to be set by Reuther and his top aides. The union settled with Ford last Wednesday.

CARGO ON FIRE

LIVERPOOL, England (AP)—The 3,111-ton British freighter Boswell put into port today with a blazing cargo of South American rosewood logs, cotton and peanuts. Firemen took eight hours to control the flames.

Equal Time Given Democratic Party

NEW YORK (AP)—A Democratic party spokesman, as yet unnamed, will get 10 minutes on the Mutual Broadcasting System tonight—the same 10-minute period granted Sherman Adams Monday night.

The network said it has made available the period, beginning at 5:35 p.m. EST, in response to a formal request from Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler.

Free Cup of Coffee Goes Down the Drain

CANAJOHARIE, N. Y.—It's a tempest in a coffee pot. Should employees of Beech-Nut Life Savers Inc., a major coffee roaster, pay for the coffee they drink at work?

Yes, the company told workers at its baby-food plant here, and tossed the traditional free cup down the drain. Coffee will be a nickel, to cover rising cafeteria costs, the company said.

No, argued the Beech-Nut Employees Assn., which represents the 1,200 workers. Free coffee is a fringe benefit, the union claimed. The association sought arbitration.

PUPILS URGE THAT SCHOOL BE REOPENED

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Youngsters in Virginia and Arkansas played an active part in the integration crisis Monday while Florida's Gov. Leroy Collins told the Southern Governors Conference the dispute could lead to a national catastrophe.

High school pupils in Norfolk and Charlottesville, Va., signed petitions urging that their public schools be opened so they could get an education.

Eight Negroes re-entered Van Buren, Ark., High School and three others returned to the nearby junior high amid only minor demonstrations. They had been out for about two weeks because of a temporary boycott by white pupils.

The Negro pupils returned to classes today without incident. In Little Rock, about 200 shouting teen-agers demonstrated in front of the governor's mansion, chanting in pep rally style, "Two, four, six, eight! We don't want to integrate!"

Gov. Orval E. Faubus, who closed all four Little Rock high schools, was attending the governors conference in Lexington, Ky., however.

He told newsmen there the Little Rock schools probably would reopen next week as private institutions after Saturday's special election on the question of admitting Negroes.

Money Shortage Closes Schools in Shenandoah

SHENANDOAH, Pa. (AP)—Five of the 12 teachers at West Mahanoy Township High School were back at their desks today and more than 100 pupils were in the classrooms—but officially the school remained closed.

Teachers weren't getting paid. Pupils weren't getting credits.

The school board of this Schuylkill County community in the hard coal area of northeastern Pennsylvania had closed the school last Thursday because of a teacher strike brought on by a money shortage.

The walkout by the five men teachers a week ago brought the matter to a head. They demanded payment of some $90,000 in back pay owed them and the seven women instructors.

Goldfine Whereabouts Remains a Mystery

BOSTON (AP)—Friends of Bernard Goldfine quoted the textile industrialist as saying "what a crime" when he heard Sherman Adams announce his resignation Monday night.

But there was no direct comment from the man whose generosity led to the difficulties that brought about the resignation.

Goldfine's wife told reporters at his home that she didn't know where her husband was.

Strait Crisis Discussed by Admiral Felt

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek and Adm. Harry D. Felt discussed the Formosa Strait crisis today as the Communist threat to the offshore islands went into a second tense month.

Continuing strong Nationalist demands for U.S. support in aerial attacks on the mainland gun positions presumably were voiced at the three-hour meeting. American officers have restrained such action for fear of spreading the vest pocket war.

The President of Nationalist China and the commander in chief of U.S. forces in the Pacific were believed to have considered ways of getting more supplies to the besieged Quemoy.

The Nationalists said another supply convoy got through to Quemoy and more supplies were parachuted to Little Quemoy. With the Communist bombardment continuing, however, the supply situation on the little islands remained tight.

The Defense Ministry said the Communists hurled 5,831 shells at the islands in the last six hours Monday, the last day of a full month's bombardment. Since Aug. 23, about 325,000 have been fired the Nationalist estimated.

The Nationalists have reported 280 military casualties among the 100,000 soldiers on the Quemoy plus 63 civilians killed and 159 wounded by shells.

The Defense Ministry claims 14 Communist MIG jet fighters shot down plus 3 probables without the loss of a Nationalist jet; and 7 Communist gunboats, 11 torpedo boats and 8 motorized junks sunk at the cost of 3 Nationalist landing ships.

These figures were reviewed here as Adm. Felt met with Chiang in the President's Taipei headquarters. Since the admiral's arrival on Formosa Saturday for a five-day visit, he has conferred with the ranking U.S. officers here and with Nationalist military leaders.

The big problem immediately facing these officers presumably was the supply situation. Nationalist ability to run the Red artillery blockade nine days in a row still has not resulted in sufficient deliveries to the islands.

The most pressing need is for medical supplies. Some were parachuted to big Quemoy Sunday in the first airdrop to that island. Doctors reported that a high percentage of wounded were dying for lack of refrigeration for drugs or a blood bank.

Cleveland Man Suicides After Slaying Family

CLEVELAND (AP)—At about midnight Monday night two policemen crawled through the milk chute of a darkened, two-story brick colonial house in Shaker Heights.

In the master bedroom on the second floor they found neatly arranged on a bed, face up, the bodies of Mrs. Matilda Wein, 38, and her sons, Robert, 4, and Neal, 8.

In the bathroom nearby, hanging by a clothes line tied to the shower nozzle and curtain rod, was the body of the head of the family, Harry Wein, 41, a salesman-distributor for a firm that markets gummed tape and other packaging products.

Marks on the necks of the woman and two boys indicated they had been strangled by Wein, who then hanged himself, Detective Edward Havel said.

All of the bodies were fully clothed. There was no sign of struggle or disarray within the house.

A neighbor said the children were playing with a wagon in the yard at about 5 p. m. An uncooked chicken was on the kitchen table.

No notes were found, and detectives worked today to establish a motive. The Weins had moved into the house Sept. 1 from an apartment in another part of Shaker Heights, so the immediate neighbors knew little about them.

Ike Back in Capital After His Vacation

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower returned to Washington today from a 25-day vacation at Newport, R. I. One of his first big jobs is to pick a new chief aide as successor to Sherman Adams.

The President, looking tanned and rested, smiled and waved briefly to a small crowd on hand as he left his private plane, the Columbine III. Mrs. Eisenhower was with him.

Eisenhower left immediately for the White House.

Terrorists Using Submachineguns In Paris Area

By JOHN RODERICK

PARIS (AP)—Police today discovered a crude time bomb hidden atop the famed Eiffel Tower visited by thousands of tourists annually.

The bomb contained about five pounds of dynamite, police said, and was powerful enough to have blown off the entire top framework which consists mainly of recently added television installations.

The bomb was discovered as the French police force redoubled efforts to stem the wave of Algerian Nationalist terrorism sweeping France on the eve of a new constitutional referendum asked by Premier Charles de Gaulle.

PARIS (AP)—Submachineguns chattered in a vacant lot early today in the Aubervilliers section of Paris near the municipal slaughterhouse.

Three Algerian terrorists who opened fire on a police car were making their last stand. The gendarmes, including one whom the Algerians wounded, tracked them down.

Ten minutes later the three terrorists were dead.

At Metz in eastern France about the same time, an Algerian fired three bullets at a French noncommissioned army officer.

The soldier crumpled into the street, dead.

Across the Mediterranean in war-weary Algeria, authorities said French soldiers came across the mass grave of between 400 (Turn to Page Eight)

Somebody Goofs at Regional VA Office

Present Trial To Cause Delay in Federal Inquiry

PITTSBURGH (AP)—U. S. Atty. Hubert Teitelbaum said today he will wait until 14 remaining racket bribery case defendants are tried in Allegheny County before questioning them in connection with a federal probe.

Teitelbaum said he doesn't consider it appropriate for him to question the 14 men while their cases still are pending.

The 14 men are accused of bribing or conspiring to bribe Patrolman John James for protection against numbers raids. One man has been convicted and two others acquitted of similar charges.

Last week Teitelbaum announced that federal authorities were undertaking an investigation of reports that high-ranking Pittsburgh police officials had accepted bribes.

Teitelbaum said he is "talking to people who want to talk to us" in connection with the probe.

Noted Author of Mysteries And Novels Dies in Sleep

By RICHARD G. VALERIANI

NEW YORK (AP)—Mary Roberts Rinehart, best-selling author of mysteries and novels for 50 years, is dead at 82.

She died in her sleep Monday night in her Park Avenue apartment. There, until writer's cramp afflicted her two years ago, she applied her pen every morning to one of the most successful careers in the history of publishing.

From her pen flowed 60 full-length novels, hundreds of short stories, verse and plays—success following success like chapters in a book.

Estimates on the number of copies of her books sold range over 11 million. A publisher once figured that her millions of readers paid some 27 million dollars to read her works and see her plays.

LODGE AND GROMYKO IN ANGRY ROW

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States felt confident of easily shelving for another year the Red China seating issue today as the General Assembly neared a vote.

The prebate debate was marked by a head-on clash between the Soviet Union and the United States on the Formosa Strait crisis.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge lashed back angrily after Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko had accused the United States of "playing with fire in the Far East."

Lodge told the Assembly Gromyko's words "hardly become" government with the brutal record of the Soviet Union.

The Americans were sure their postponement motion would get 45 favorable votes and that not more than 30 would be against.

Lodge angrily took the floor to answer Gromyko after the Soviet foreign minister had injected the Formosa question into the representation debate. Lodge had observed Assembly rules in earlier remarks and refrained from engaging in broader issues connected with the question.

Gromyko demanded that the United States pull its military forces from Formosa "while it is not too late."

"How long," he said, "is the United Nations going to tolerate being used as a tool of a policy of interference in the internal affairs of another country, the policy of direct aggression pursued by the United States?"

Lodge retorted that Gromyko had taken advantage of a chance to launch a full-scale attack on U.S. policy.

"What kind of game is he playing here?" he demanded.

"We never interfere, we never impose our will on another country," he said. "It will become the Soviet Union with its record of slavery to make accusations against us."

Ohio Housewife Winner of $25,000 Baking Contest

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Don de Vault, 38-year-old Delaware, Ohio housewife, today won the $25,000 first prize in a national baking contest with a new version of that all-time favorite—apple pie.

She called her creation "spicy apple twists." In addition to putting apple pie in a new form with both taste and eye appeal, she halved the cooking time.

Her apple twists bake in 20 to 25 minutes, compared with 45 minutes to an hour for the time-honored variety of dessert.

The apple twists are made from strips of flaky pastry twisted around quartered apples, then brushed generously with butter and sprinkled with cinnamon and sugar. When done, they look like small eclairs.

The 10th annual bake-off was sponsored by the Pillsbury Flour Mills.

Board at West Forest Votes to Remove House

WEST FOREST—The West Forest Joint School Committee met here Sept. 16 with 14 directors, various teachers and supervisors, and the county superintendent of schools, Karl Seifert, in attendance.

Permission has been received from State Public School Building Authority to remove the deely residence located on school property at Tionesta. Bids will be advertised shortly for this project.

Eight bids were received for the painting of East Hickory school. The contract was awarded to Jay's Painting & Decorating Co., Franklin, the low bidder. Paul Whitton was given a coal bid for this year's coal supply, he being the only bidder.

Since West Forest's enrollment is higher than East Forest School, it was decided that the services of the art teachers would be reapportioned, with East Forest School having two days a week for the entire year, and West Forest having one other three day a week for the entire year.

The board approved the purchase of five electric typewriters to be used in the commercial room. Permission was given to the PTA to use the school gym for a holiday dance on Dec. 27, benefit of student aid fund. The Forest County Agricultural Extension Association was granted permission to use the school cafeteria for a tureen dinner and meeting Nov. 13.

A rich Roman residence containing costly bronzes was recently uncovered below a meadow patch in Sardis, Turkey.

Talk on Retarded Children Planned Thursday Evening

In the hope of advancing a better understanding of the needs of retarded individuals and the services necessary to meet these needs, the Warren County Association for Retarded Children is sponsoring a talk on "Using Community Resources to Help Our Retarded Children". It will be presented Thursday at 8:00 p. m. in the large Court Room of the Court House.

The speaker will be Mrs. Carl Weed, Jr., of Philadelphia, Pa. who has distinguished herself on both National and State levels as Chairman of many committees, as an author of books and of articles which have been published in leading periodicals including the American Journal of Mental Deficiency. She is presently Chairman of the National Association Parent Guidance Committee and the Pennsylvania Association Home Nursing and Early Training of Mentally Retarded Children Committee. She is National Association co-ordinator of a workshop on "Using Community Resources to Help the Retarded" which will be presented at the National Convention in October.

A graduate of Swathmore College, Mrs. Weed taught school for several years and is now teaching a class of mentally retarded children under the Special Education program. She is also a volunteer worker at Pennhurst State School. She is past-president of the Montgomery County Chapter of PARC and has organized 14 chapters in Pennsylvania.

Because of her knowledge in the many different phases of retardation and her experiences in the communities she has visited, Mrs. Weed is considered an outstanding speaker and authority on evaluating needs and planning services.

An invitation to attend this meeting is extended to the public, representatives of organizations and professional people in the hope that Warren will be a healthier, happier community for all its citizens.

SERIES PREPAREDNESS STARTS TODAY

Starting today on Times-Mirror sport pages with White Sox Manager Al Lopez's article on why he likes the Yankees in October and starts hating them in April, is the first of a series of feature articles for World Series preparedness. Numerous guest writers' columns will be read with great interest among baseball fans. It will be interesting to keep an eye on the articles as sports writers, managers and team members express their views on the 1958 World Series.

CORRY ASSESSMENT

In a surprise move at Corry, Finance Director Guy Abbe said he felt the city should conduct a triennial assessment which should have been carried out last year. The fact that council slipped up last year appeared to be a deterrent until it was stated that the 1954 triennial ran over into 1955 and that council can legally carry the triennial off this year. Thursday night some members of council met with Assessor William Miller and began the "desk" assessment which will be made. A "desk" assessment is one which is made without actually visiting the property to appraise it.

AUTUMN LEAF FESTIVAL

Clarion is already beating the drums for its annual Autumn Leaf Festival, a pretentious six-day pageant of features fashioned by both nature and man, scheduled to open Oct. 1. Besides the fabulous display of fall hued foliage lining the hills which cradle that center of industry and learning, there will be colorful parades, floats, bands, dinners, sightseeing tours by air, boat and bus, the Autumn Leaf Ball, college homecoming reunion, football contests, a street fair and other activities.

BUYS OLD SCHOOL

The Rev. M. J. McCleery, of Titusville purchased the East Titusville school building and lot for $1,450 at a public auction. He intends to use it for a new church, the Evangelical Wesleyan. It will not be an organized church, he said but a community Sunday school and church. The minister's wife was the last teacher to conduct classes in the school. She taught for Southwest township, Warren county, which rented it from Oil Creek township for several years. The building was the last remaining one-room school in that township.

KANE FISH PARADISE

Republican: Evergreen Park pond is dead—"killed" in order to advance plans for new stocking and improvement which may provide a fisherman's paradise for local youngsters. Joseph Bacardi, biologist for the U. S. Forest Service who has headed a stream stocking improvement program in the Allegheny National Forest with cooperation of the Kane Fish and Game Club, "killed" the park pond here to permit cleaning and restocking. Mr. Bacardi and Jim McCullough, Sr., of the Kane Fish and Game club, disclosed that large numbers of bullheads, one crappie and a few blue gills were taken from the pond. None of the carp were left. If the water temperature is "right", it may be possible to stock the pond with trout from time to time to provide a thrill for youngsters. Definitely scheduled is an ample stocking of blue gills.

AREA YOUTHS MISSING

Kane Republican: A group of Kane youths, all believed teenagers, who started out for Florida and returned for lack of funds, will be welcomed home any time—with worried families hoping they will get home before they get into trouble. One of the group had difficulty in school and failed to return to his Ludlow home on Sept. 11. Others have been missing for a corresponding period and are now reported in a camp in this area. One of the lads returned home but was unable to tell where the others were located. Families of the youths have been making every effort to locate them. They are traveling in a 1949 black 4-door Ford, Pennsylvania registration 174YU. Concern has been expressed here for a Kane youth employed on a woods job near Westline who has been missing for several days. He is reported to have been carrying a .38 calibre pistol.

With the Candidates

Candidates Debate at Press Club Meeting

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Sharply divergent views on the role of businessmen in politics were expressed Monday by a New York Congressman and a Pittsburgh Democrat seeking election to congress.

L. T. Sellers, the Democrat, and Rep. Ralph W. Gwinn (R-NY) debated the issue at the Pittsburgh Press Club.

Sellers claimed that "business leaders are masters in the art of business operations, but they are wholly incompetent in the science of government."

Gwinn replied: "If the businessmen of America won't see to it that men are elected who are committed to restoring the constitutional government, who else will? If they do not, the labor classes will continue to set aside the constitutional limitations on government and substitute the unlimited powers of the socialist state instead."

CLARK

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Democrats will have to take up the slack in national affairs because President Eisenhower "is now so lethargic and so incompetent to deal with national problems," Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.) said Monday.

Clark spoke in behalf of Gov. George M. Leader, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator against Republican Rep. Hugh Scott of Philadelphia.

Leader, if elected, would be put on an important committee because the Democrats control the Senate, said Clark. His Republican opponent, he added, would be placed on minor committees.

That's why, the senator went on, Leader would be able to go to work immediately in behalf of Pennsylvania in the Senate.

Clark and Mayor Richardson Dilworth praised Leader's running mate, Mayor David Lawrence of Pittsburgh, who is running for governor.

LEADER

LIGONIER, Pa. (AP)—Americans have made history a dry, dull subject rather than the living force that it is, in the opinion of Gov. Leader.

Speaking Monday night at a dinner in his honor during Ligonier's week-long bicentennial celebration the governor said that "sometime within the next few years Pennsylvania might well establish a historical circuit."

He said definite historical routes should be outlined for vacationists and others to follow.

The governor also spoke prior to the first performance of a pageant titled "Westward—An Empire," which has a cast of 175.

On the agenda today was a parade of high school bands and a speech by Dr. Elvis T. Stahr, vice-chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh.

McGONIGLE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Arthur T. McGonigle, Republican candidate for governor, promised today that he will have "plenty to say that will lift the lid on the Leader-Lawrence mess."

McGonigle referred to the Democratic candidates — Pittsburgh Mayor David L. Lawrence for governor, and Gov. Leader for U. S. Senate—in a speech to the Kiwanis Club.

"Everyone knows that it was Dave Lawrence who wrecked the Earle Administration—and everyone knows that it has been the same Dave Lawrence who has had a string on the present Democrat governor—and who has been the power behind Leader's wasteful, mismanaged administration," McGonigle said.

The Republican gubernatorial nominee said Gov. George Earle was a man with good intentions who promised the people good government.

Senator Martin Is Head of Heart Fund

United States Senator Edward Martin above, will be the 1959 Heart Fund Chairman in Pennsylvania. The announcement was made by Eugene P. Bertin, Board Chairman, at the Ninth Annual Meeting of the Pennsylvania Heart Association in Philadelphia.

Following his retirement from the Washington political arena, the distinguished Senator will direct the February independent Heart campaign in his home state. In noting the 13.9% increase gained in the 1958 Heart Fund, which now totals $1,280,648.52, Senator Martin cited it as the challenge for 1959 volunteers. "Our goal," he said, "is to provide the program-building dollars, the research-supporting funds which are sorely needed to conquer heart diseases and help those who are now afflicted."

Senator Martin, a resident of of Washington county, has had a long and distinguished public career. He has been a lawyer, a soldier, an author and a statesman. He accumulated 40 years service in the army and fought in four wars. He retired in 1943 with the rank of General. He received many citations for his bravery, including the Distinguished Service Cross and the Purple Heart with oakleaf cluster. Senator Martin became an author when he wrote about his famed fighting unit in a book entitled "History of the 28th Division."

RADIO and TV

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—"We often wonder how you get on 'Person to Person,'" said Jesse Zousmer, producer of the show.

"And we still don't know how you get on this show," said co-producer John A. Aaron.

"Person to Person," where people are interviewed in their homes by Edward R. Murrow, returns to the home screen Friday evening over CBS-TV.

The guests will be comedian Jerry Lewis in his California home and Cmdr. William R. Anderson, who will be interviewed aboard the atomic submarine Nautilus in Groton, Conn.

Although Aaron and Zousmer like to play it somewhat vague on how they select their guests, they are not at all vague about one thing. In unison they say as "Person to Person" begins its sixth year:

"It will always stay live. If the program ever went to film, it would lose all its spontaneity and die."

A fellow chatting with them said that one reason he enjoyed watching the show is the perpetual anticipation, seldom realized, that something might go hilariously wrong. Aaron and Zousmer, who are as protective of their guests' sensibilities as mother hens, fell silent.

The fellow recalled the guest who started to take the TV audience through his home via "Person to Person" live cameras and walked straight into a closet.

Then there was the time Sid Caesar forgot his wife's name and the time Mrs. Pat Weaver's zipper broke and the time Bob Hope's hands shook with nervousness and the time—

"That's what we mean by the spontaneity of live television," Aaron said. "If such things happened in filming we'd feel ethically bound to re-make shots."

"The public knows the difference," Zousmer added. "If we went to film people would quickly feel the show was rehearsed and phony."

Although there are no "rehearsals," Aaron and Zousmer often exert directorial powers to help the people Murrow interviews. They have made men guests change their ties and ordered women guests to change from expensive dinner dresses into something less conspicuous. Except in the case of as renowned a drinker as Toots Shor, they never permit the cameras to show a bar in a home the program visits.

It's also true that they have pursued some reluctant people for years in order to bring them to "Person to Person." For example, Marilyn Monroe, the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, Sophia Loren, Vivien Leigh have made their only live TV appearances on the program.

Sir Winston Churchill is the only person they would consent to film—and they'd probably row a boat to England to do it.

OFFICES BROKEN INTO

Three of four offices broken into on the second floor of the McCrory building in Bradford sometime late Wednesday or early Thursday were ransacked but yielded only a .25 caliber revolver. Police Chief Edward Edmonds stated that in each instance glass was smashed out of door windows to unlock them. Nearly all desk drawers were ransacked but nothing of value was believed taken except the gun which was removed from the desk of the insurance office of Elmer Bliss.

1-Man Crusader In Cancer Fight To Visit Warren

Dr. Robert J. Samp, a member of the staff of the Cancer Research hospital of University Hospitals in Wisconsin, head of the program of cancer education, and medical and scientific director of the Wisconsin Division of the American Cancer Society, will be the guest speaker at a special luncheon to be held October 3, at 12 noon in Warren General Hospital cafeteria, when he will address the Warren County Medical Association; the Warren General Hospital Board of Directors; and the Board of Directors of the Warren County Unit of the ACS.

Samp, the Billy Graham of the American Cancer Society, has gained national prominence in this dissemination of cancer information, both to the general public and to practicing physicians. The Wisconsin Division of the ACS gets more speaking requests than Dr. Samp can possibly fill, yet during the past couple of years, he has spoken at district meetings that have included all of the American Cancer Society's 60 Divisions.

Dr. Samp decided on cancer research in 1955 and joined the staff at the Cancer Research Hospital, and he feels that he can personally do more given time to speak to groups on cancer prevention, than he can in a practice of his own. Dr. Samp is primarily interested in professional and public cancer education, cancer prevention and control, and cancer quackery, having recently written several papers concerning these subjects.

Filling a rare niche in medical circles with his dynamic speeches on prevention of the nation's number two disease killer—cancer, Dr. Samp will be welcomed to Warren, and will present a tremendous opportunity to the Warren County Medical Association; the Warren General Hospital Board of Directors; and the Board of Directors of the Warren County Unit of the ACS, when he delivers his stimulating message on Friday, October 3.

Value of State Property in Penn'a Over $263,000,000

HARRISBURG (AP)—The value of state-owned property in Pennsylvania was placed today at nearly $263 million dollars, more than 2½ times its worth 10 years ago.

If municipalities and school boards were allowed to tax it for real estate purposes, it would yield 10½ million dollars.

This was revealed by the State Tax Equalization Board in a comprehensive report on real estate tax exemptions. The report could become the basis for action by the 1959 Legislature on the tax exemption problem.

Many communities, principally Harrisburg, have long clamored for the right to collect some form of revenue for state-owned lands and buildings within their boundaries. They claim police and fire protection in other communities are provided for state-owned property without adequate reimbursement.

The Tax Equalization Board did not go into the merits of the tax-exemption question except to make some revealing disclosures. For example:

Nineteen per cent of all real estate in Pennsylvania is tax-exempt. In cash this means $2,850,000,000 out of total assessments of $15,300,000,000.

School districts, municipalities, religious organizations and public utilities account for more than half of the total exempt assessments. The remainder includes the U. S. and state and county government property, colleges, charitable organizations, cemeteries and veterans' organizations.

Philadelphia and Pittsburgh accounted for most of the exempt assessments. But four rural counties—Centre, Forest, Montour and Warren—had the largest ratio of exempt assessments ranging from 56 per cent to 74 per cent of the total county assessments.

Harrisburg, the state capital, and Lock Haven, site of a state teachers college, each had exempt assessments equal to 48 per cent of the total assessments.

The borough of Polk in Venango County has only $198,620 in taxable real estate compared to $7,136,330 in exempt real estate, principally a state school for mentally retarded children in Polk.

ping sees the opportunity as greater than ever.

The United States has held out a prospect of some sort of solution through peaceful negotiation. This would require concessions on both sides. Any concession the United States might make would be a political victory for Red China. Washington hardly can compromise without going back on its pledges to Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists.

The Red Chinese hand is on the spigot again, ready to turn it off if the reward is sufficient. That sort of bait could be calculated to quicken a stampede for recognition of Red China as an insurance against war. Peiping's representation at the summit might lend such a movement powerful momentum.

Save Sympathy for 'Lonely' Couple---They're Having Ball

They could be regarded as the "poor lonely Whites rattling around in that big house, with not a single one of their four children living in the same state."

But nobody could ever honestly feel sorry for the Whites. Because they aren't rattling around in that big, old house they lived in until the last child was married and gone from home.

They sold the big, old house and built themselves a house exactly right for two persons who want a home to have as much comfort and require as little care as possible.

And instead of being lonely, the Whites are having as much fun as anyone in town.

That is because the Whites are making use of the advantages that come with their time of life. They aren't wasting their new freedom on loneliness, or busy work, or fretting about the lives their grown children are leading.

They are using it to do at long last the things they have wanted to do for years. They can't travel as much as they would like to, but they make up for it by carefully planning the trips they do take. They study up on the places they are to visit, and enjoy each trip to the utmost—all the way from planning for it to looking back on it as having given them exactly what they wanted.

They are both busy with hobbies, some shared and some pursued without the other's participation. They have more time for developing friendships than they have had in years, so their house is often filled with friends.

They have more time for each other now, too. And they are using it to share ideas, talk over the books they read, and to plan their social life far enough ahead so that there is no time for feeling lonely or left out.

No two people who care about each other need dread the time when their children are grown and gone from home. It doesn't have to be a lonely time. Like the Whites, any couple can change from living for the children to living for themselves.

Hairdos Romantic? It Shapes Up That Way

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

As the bubble haircut departs, the smaller and neater head appears for autumn. The careless curls are still there but not in such profusion.

Generally, there's more shaping for the hair, a closer alliance to the outline of the head and a romantic look in keeping with the new Directoire silhouette.

The basis for such a hairdo is, of course, a good permanent and expert cutting. The back will be scissored closer to the head than was true of the bubble cut and should be tapered slightly.

This is still a hairdo without a part but if you feel happiest with a part, your hair stylist can work out a version with part for you. Length of the hair is about two inches over the head for a light and feathery look.

When you have your hair cut and set, ask for directions for setting it yourself. For every

"The Fourposter" Is Opener For Players

When the curtain goes up on Warren Players' first production of the year, October 16-17, the audience is bound to be hilariously entertained.

Director Edith O'Hara has selected Jon de Hartog's three-act play, "The Fourposter", because of its popularity and delightful comedy.

The fast-moving story deals with a 25-year marriage and the influence of "the fourposter" on the lives of the two people who make up the cast. Mr. de Hartog passes over none of the standard moments of fear, pathos and unconscious comedy experienced in all marriages.

"The Fourposter" is one of the few plays to enjoy a long run and become a smash hit, while played by a cast of two. Director O'Hara shows her casting know how in bringing to the stage of this comedy two of Warren's favorite and most talented actors.

Miss Lois Byham will play the part of Agnes, made famous by Jessica Tandy in the Broadway production, and Richard Andersen will be seen as Michael, the part in which Hume Cronyn starred. Rehearsals are well under way and all things point to a merry start for Warren Players' 25th season.

Season memberships are available for both active and associate members and it is hoped all those who wish to belong will get into the swing of things by securing them early.

The Mature Parent

Parent's Anger Is No Help To Irresponsible Child

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

The shop sells notions. Usually the proprietress—a man and wife—are both available to wait on customers.

But yesterday she was alone behind the counter. I asked for pink ribbon, and as she was turning to the shelves behind her the telephone rang. She said, "Excuse me," walked over to the instrument and spoke at once into its mouthpiece. "No, Nick," she said, "I can't talk to you now. I'm busy. I've got a customer."

Back with me, she selected a bolt from one of the shelves, explaining, "It was my boy. At 15 you'd think he'd have enough sense not to pester me. He knows his Pop isn't here. But kids have no sense of responsibility any more."

I had just said, "I think three yards..." when the telephone rang again. After the fifth ring, she answered it. "Didn't I tell you I can't talk now?" she demanded. "Leave me alone, Nick! This customer..."

"I don't mind waiting," I said.

But she'd already slammed the receiver back on its hook and was preparing to cut off my ribbon.

The phone shrilled again.

"Oh, honestly," she said. "This time I'll show him. Let him ring." But she didn't. Snatching at the phone, she cried angrily, "You just wait, Nick. I'll punish you all week for this..."

As I left with my ribbon, the phone was ringing again.

Her performance was not calculated to produce a responsible child.

It was she, not Nick who had experienced the entire conflict between obligation to me and obligation to him.

What would have happened if she'd said just once—"Nick, I've told you I'm alone here. You know what that means as well as I do. Think over what you want to ask me again. If you decide that it's more important than my work, call me back—and I'll listen to you gladly."

Nick himself would have had to go to work on balancing his mother's obligation to him against her obligation to business.

As it was he behaved like a baby who expects other people to do all his thinking for him.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 2:00 p. m. September 13 in Youngsville EUB church by Rev. F. Eugene Donelson, against a background of pink and white gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, selected a tulle suit with burnt orange accessories, and a white orchid corsage. Barbara Billsborough, as maid of honor, chose a grey suit, navy accessories, and a yellow orchid corsage.

Robert Hollabaugh, nephew of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were John Hodges, the bride's brother, and Tom Schwanke, her cousin.

The bride's mother wore blue chiffon over satin, with a corsage of red carnations.

A reception for 75 guests was held in the church basement, when tables were decorated with fall flowers and white candles. Mrs. Charles Seekings cut the cake; Anne Schwanke presided at the silver coffee service; Mrs. Matthew Rapp, the bride's sister, was at the punch bowl.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will reside at 225 East Main street, Youngsville.

Dorothy Roe Says---

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Most women have trouble raising one family, but unruffled Jane Wyatt, of New York and Hollywood, manages two with the greatest of ease.

"It's confusing only to the public," says the youthful-looking, blue-eyed Jane, who plays the mother in the TV series, "Father Knows Best." In private life she is the wife of investment banker Edgar B. Ward and mother of two sons, Chris, 21, a student at M.I.T., and Michael, 15, who attends prep school in Rhode Island.

For five years Jane's screen husband has been Robert Young, and the other members of the TV Anderson family have been her three make-believe children: Betty, the college daughter, played by Elinor Donahue; Bud, the high school son, played by Billy Gray, and little Kathy, played by Lauren Chapin.

"We've had the same children in the cast from the beginning," says Jane, "and of course all three are five years older now. We planned it that way. If the series goes on and on, as seems likely, we can start having grandchildren when Betty gets old enough to be married.

"The whole thing is so realistic that many of the public seem to think that Robert Young is my real husband, and the three youngsters our own children." Jane is a native New Yorker who has starred in both Broadway and Hollywood productions, in addition to her current television work. Says she:

"While I'm doing this series, there isn't time for anything else. To film the weekly half-hour show we are on the set from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. five days a week. Actually during the 39 weeks of the series I see more of Bob Young than I do of my own husband.

"But my real husband is a tolerant and understanding character, in addition to being just as good-looking as any movie hero. We've been married for almost 25 years, so I think you could say the marriage is a success."

About 180 officials and guests from Credit Unions in the Erie Chapter and Allegheny Valley Chapter attended the annual Credit Union Day dinner-dance at the Pleasant Township Firemen's Hall in Warren. A social hour was held, followed by a turkey dinner served by the Firemen's Auxiliary.

Reminder for Taxpayers About Gasoline Claims

Taxpayers have until September 30 to file claims for refund of Federal excise taxes paid on certain gasoline purchases from July 1, 1957 to June 30, 1958. John H. Binger, District Director of Internal Revenue announced today.

Mr. Binger said farmers who purchased gasoline during that time for use on the farm are entitled to refund of the full 3 cents a gallon tax by filing Form 2240.

Other taxpayers, he said, who purchased gasoline for nonhighway use may claim refund of 1 cent a gallon by filing Form 843.

Mr. Binger said taxpayers who file by mail must have their claims postmarked no later than September 30.

Mr. Binger said helpful information about these two refund provisions of the law can be found in Internal Revenue Service booklets, "Farmer's Gas Tax Refund," Publication Number 308 (6-58), and "Federal Gas Tax Refund for Nonhighway and Transit Users," Publication Number 378 (6-58).

He said these booklets and claim forms can be obtained from his office at the New Federal Building, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

King Stricken With Touch of Pneumonia

NEW YORK (AP) — A touch of pneumonia has complicated the condition of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

X-rays disclosed the pneumonia in King's lower right lung. Doctors said it had been expected and was nothing to worry about.

The 29-year-old Montgomery, Ala., pastor, advocate of nonviolent resistance for Negroes in their struggle against segregation, has been on the critical list at Harlem Hospital since Saturday. He was stabbed with a steel letter opener by a Negro woman in a Harlem department store as he autographed copies of his book "Stride Toward Freedom."

The woman, Mrs. Izola Ware Curry, 42, is under mental observation at Bellevue Hospital, where doctors said she could give no coherent explanation for the attack on King.

Titusville Sylvania Will Hold Union Vote

Titusville-Herald: For the second time in as many years, hourly production and maintenance employees at the Sylvania Electric Products, Inc., plant on Pleasantville Road will vote on the question of union representation. Employees at that plant now are not represented by any union.

In an election to be held on Oct. 1, employees will vote by secret ballot to determine whether or not they wish to be represented for purposes of collective bargaining by either the International Association of Machinists, AFL-CIO, or the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers (UE). The election will be conducted in the plant and will be supervised by the National Labor Relations Board.

A similar election was conducted among the same group of employees on Aug. 28, 1957. The UE withdrew from that contest before the date of the election for lack of support. The Machinists polled 114 votes but lacked sufficient support to muster a majority vote.

Sylvania Electric has about 40 production plants across the country. Employees at only 15 of these plants are represented by unions. The Machinists represent employees at only three Sylvania plants while the UE represents employees at only two of the company's plants.

BRIDGE SILENT PARTNERS LOSE

BY OSWALD JACOBY

North's decision to stand for the two-spade double was a dangerous one. His partner had clearly shown six clubs and four spades and three clubs would have been a safer contract.

West opened the king of hearts and continued the suit despite the fact that his partner dropped the deuce. South trumped low and played two high trumps.

Next came the club suit. West followed to the first three

East was bitter about the whole matter. He pointed out that a diamond shift would have beaten the hand and that he had played the deuce of hearts at trick one.

East was right in his analysis of the defense, but East had made the major mistake of the hand.

East and West have a cinch four hearts and should have reached it. Once West bid two hearts East should have bid either three or four hearts. Had he bid four they would have been right in game. Had he bid three West would probably have gone on.

K.C. Sports Night Committee Sets Ticket Deadline

At a special meeting in K. of C. Rooms last evening, Sports Night committee set a deadline for the sale of tickets, urging Warren fans planning to attend the affair to purchase their tickets at the earliest possible date. Deadline is October 8 for the October 13 affair.

It is desirable that the local fans buy tickets now as they will be put on sale in a number of surrounding towns where requests have been received. The committee feels that Warren should have first opportunity to buy tickets, but with requests coming from other towns the tickets will have to be distributed elsewhere the coming week.

Tickets are now on sale at Logan's Men's Wear, Busy Bee, Farr's Sporting Goods, United Cigar, Sport Shop, Count's Restaurant, Sealise West Side Grocery, Miller's Confectionery in Clarendon and Rock Springs Park in Sheffield.

State Turns Over Special Centers For Handicapped

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Public Instruction Department reported 25 special education centers for handicapped children formerly operated by the state were turned over to local authorities this fall.

Dr. Kathryn Dice, state director of special services for pupils, said Monday in a statement:

"With the opening of school this year, 21 state-operated day-care centers for mentally handicapped children were absorbed into county or local programs. In addition, four state-operated programs of itinerant services for children with speech and hearing handicaps were undertaken by the special education offices of Delaware, Westmoreland, Clearfield and Centre counties."

The state will continue operation of four special education centers in Harrisburg, Pittsburgh, State College and Philadelphia.

Dr. Dice said the state opened the 25 schools in 1953 when the demand for special training was great and county and local administrations were not prepared to handle them. Now that local authorities are ready to go ahead on their own, she said, the Commonwealth is turning the programs over.

Gas service was not interrupted. Stored supplies poured into the main line above the break and repairs were made in four hours.

Two Injured, Five Cars Damaged in Accidents

Two area young people are reported in "fair" condition today at Warren General Hospital where they were admitted early Monday evening following a one-car automobile wreck on Zimmerman Hill Road in Pleasant Township three miles south of Warren.

According to investigating troopers, Shannon Madigan, 18, of 106 Cayuga avenue, was proceeding north up the hill when she lost control of the car. The vehicle went through a field and struck an embankment.

Miss Madigan sustained cuts of both lips and fractured ribs. A passenger, David Phinney, 19, of 11 Elm street, suffered multiple facial lacerations. Damage to the car was estimated at $600.

A blinding sun was blamed for a three-car mishap at 5:30 p. m. on Pennsylvania avenue east in the 1600 Block.

Police said Julius M. Johnson, 77, of 403 Poplar street, was traveling west on Pennsylvania avenue when, with sun glaring in the windshield, he swerved too close to parked cars to avoid an oncoming vehicle.

The Johnson machine sustained a $50 dent, as did the first parked car owned by Anna C. Maeder of 10 South Marion. A second parked car, registered to E. F. Wollaston of RD 1, Portland, N. Y., had a $5 dent.

At 6:50 p. m. a car was rammed in the rear at Crescent street and Pennsylvania avenue as an operator's attention was distracted.

According to police, Cecil Poole, Jr., 26, of 24 Barnes street, Sheffield, was heading west on Pennsylvania avenue in a line of traffic when he bent down to pick up a shirt which had fallen to the floor. Too late chine engaged intimately with the trunk of the lead car.

That machine was undamaged and police did not take the name of the operator who left before they arrived. Poole's car sustained a $100 fracture.

Dockets Closed On Westmoreland Photo Ban Case

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The dockets on the lengthy Westmoreland County photo ban case are closed. It was disclosed Monday that seven defendants have paid a total of $1,900 in fines.

The defendants were convicted of contempt of Westmoreland County Court in connection with the taking of news photographs of a murder defendant John Wesley Wable in a corridor outside a courtroom in 1954. They were charged with violating a court rule.

Challenging the right of the court to impose such a ban, the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and the Greensburg Tribune Review had a test case. There was no challenge of the court's right to ban photographs inside courtrooms.

Cited for contempt and convicted of contempt of Westmoreland County Court were David W. Mack, publisher of the Tribune-Review; William Block, publisher of the Post-Gazette; Andrew Barnhart, editor of the Post-Gazette; James G. Klingensmith and Don Bindyke, Post-Gazette photographers; Vince Johnson, Post-Gazette reporter; and Robert Purdy, freelance photographer hired by the Tribune-Review.

The ban was upheld in both state and federal courts of appeal. Jail sentences imposed on the defendants were thrown out by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

Pennsylvanians Starting Bout With the Clock

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvanians will begin their autumn bout with the clock Sunday when some communities revert to Eastern Standard Time while most stay on Daylight Saving Time.

A large majority of the Commonwealth's municipalities will stick with Daylight Time for another month, until Oct. 26. But enough switch back to Standard Time to confuse the situation in many areas.

Principal victims of the confused time situation will be workers living in a community with one time Standard and working in a community retaining DST.

For example, Wampum, Lawrence County, goes Standard Sept. 28 while the remainder of the county stays Daylight. Leading industry in the town will continue Daylight, also. Consequently, fathers will go to work on Daylight time, while their youngsters will go to school on Standard time. The question will be whether to turn the clock back one hour or let it alone.

Revenue Service To Make Public Some Exemptions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service said today it will open its files Nov. 3 to disclose all approved applications for income tax exemptions granted nonprofit educational, charitable and religious organizations. The action will be taken under a new law which permits the service to make public the applications together with its reasons for granting the exemption.

A revenue service spokesman said both the agency and the Treasury Department favored the change. He said the agency often has been asked by Congress members and others for an explanation of its actions on exemption applications, but has been barred by law from giving one.

There has been debate in Congress over tax exemptions granted a number of organizations including the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People and the Fund for the Republic.

All approved applications will be available for public inspection, together with any papers submitted in support of them. Provision is made for withholding supporting documents which might disclose defense or trade secrets or other information that would adversely affect the organization.

Authorities' Association Is In Convention

HARRISBURG (AP)—A general discussion on "authorities in action" highlighted the schedule of the Pennsylvania Municipal Authorities Assn. today.

The group opened its three-day convention Monday with opposing views from experts on costs of borrowing money under the authority plan.

Gus D. Houtman, past president of the State Assn. of Boroughs, said municipal authorities must pay from three-quarters of one percent to one percent more interest than city, borough or townships on bond issues.

However, Clarence L. Conner, chairman of the PMAA, disputed the claim and cited an instance where the Chester Water Authority was able to borrow money more cheaply than Delaware County.

U.S. Eisenhower and Chinese Premier Zhou Enlai are expected to review the critical situation upon the President's arrival from his Newport, Rhode Island, vacation.

Increasing concern in the U.S. over the Chinese is a favorable sign, according to the U.S. State Department, that the Chinese are beginning to realize the forces from the East may lead to conflict.

U.S. Ambassador Jacob Beam said China held their position on the crisis in Peking.

He said the U.S. is standing its ground and the Chinese are beginning to realize the forces from the East may lead to conflict.

microphones, Adams slowly and solemnly read his denial that he had ever influenced or "attempted to influence any agency, or any officer or any employee of any agency in any case, decision or matter whatsoever."

Unmentioned in his simple, forceful 750-word statement was the name of Goldfine. Nor was there any mention of Adams' repeated calls to regulatory agencies considering cases involving Goldfine's companies.

He said nothing, either, about his future plans when, at 59, he steps from the $22,500-a-year post he has held for nearly six years.

Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.), chairman of the House subcommittee which investigated the Adams - Goldfine relationship, indicated to reporters that he would make a statement of reply to some of the things Adams said.

"Adams took what I thought was an unnecessary and uncalled-for slap at the committee," Harris said, "and I think it's a very serious charge—certainly in view of the record—and it should be properly replied to."

Adams said in his speech that the Harris subcommittee "received completely irresponsible testimony and without conscience gave ear to rumor, innuendo and even unsubstantiated gossip."

Neighbor Shoots Up Home in Dormont

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A woman knocked at the door of a suburban Dormont home Monday night, fired two shots inside and then fled into a wooded area.

No one was injured, but Mrs. John Koehnke, 23, was still visibly shaken several hours later when she identified Mrs. Gertrude Wallace, a neighbor, as the woman who fired the shots.

Mrs. Koehnke, her husband and their two-year-old son moved into the home only two weeks ago. Mrs. Koehnke said that as she answered a knock at the door Mrs. Wallace fired a shot over her head. The bullet lodged in the ceiling.

Mrs. Wallace ran through the Koehnke home and fired another shot before fleeing. She was arrested two hours later while drinking coffee at the nearby home of her sister. Police took her to St. Francis Hospital.

Pittsburgh to Have New Federal Office Building

PITTSBURGH (AP)—City and federal officials are renewing efforts to find a suitable site for a new federal office building in Pittsburgh.

It was revealed today that the General Services Administration in Washington is seeking to learn how much it would cost to buy a site near the present post office building on Grant St.

A controversy developed nearly three years ago when the GSA announced plans to build on the site of the old post office building on Smithfield St. Some civic planners want that structure torn down to make way for a park. They also would like the new building located near the present federal office building.

The government estimates that land acquisition and construction would cost 26 million dollars.

Publisher Fulton Is Facing Strike Threat

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Rep. James G. Fulton (R-Pa.) is faced with a strike threat at the five weekly newspapers he operates in the Pittsburgh area.

The Pittsburgh Chapter of the American Newspaper Guild authorized the strike action Monday night. The guild said it would not make public the strike date.

Guild President David Martin said the strike was authorized because Fulton refuses to negotiate a contract with the guild.

Just a month ago the union filed unfair labor practices charges against Fulton, claiming he signed a letter recognizing the guild as bargaining agent for his employees but refused to negotiate a contract.

Air Force Officers Face Conspiracy Charge

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Testimony begins in U. S. District Court today for two high-ranking Air Force officers and an Ohio business executive charged with conspiring to cheat the government.

The charges against the trio concern purchases for the Olmsted Air Force Base at Middletown, near Harrisburg. Brownfield was deputy commander at Olmsted in late 1954 and early 1955. Burley was in charge of procurement.

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—I'll be tank detail for Elvis Presley, the rock 'n' roll singer turned soldier, when he reports for duty in West Germany.

U. S. Army officials said today the Memphis singer will be assigned as tank gunner or loader or as driver.

Presley's unit is stationed at Friedberg, about 20 miles north-east of Frankfurt.

With 1,360 other trainees, Presley sailed from New York Monday for Bremerhaven aboard the troop transport Randall. The ship is due to arrive Oct. 1.

I.U.E. May Recommend Elections in GE Plants

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers might recommend new elections in nine major locals that have voted not to strike General Electric.

This was indicated today by union President James B. Carey. He told a newsman that delegates from these unions will report Thursday to the union's GE conference committee on such things as freedom of elections.

24th Infantry Division from Germany and about 1,700 Marines are still here of the original force of nearly 15,000 men. Three Marine battalions already have pulled out as a result of agreement between the United States on the one hand and Chamoun and Chehab on the other.

Secretary of State Dulles has said the United States would consult with the new President on the question of withdrawing the remaining forces.

A lifelong military man who trained at France's St. Cyr military school, Chehab is a Christian. Under the constitution of this half-Christian, half-Muslim country the President must always be a Christian while his Premier must be a Muslim.

AROUND THE WORLD

TURN FOR THE BETTER—Bullocks turn the wheels of progress in Khanpur, India, as part of a project designed to increase the output of electricity. Here, the animals pull at draw bars attached to a generator, which in turn is connected to a high-efficiency water pump. Tests indicate that bullocks can produce enough power to electrify an entire village, or supply water to irrigate 100 acres of land for three crops a year.

BEDDING DOWN—Cots provide sleeping space inside one of the exhibition halls at a fair grounds in Berlin, Germany. The building had been turned into a huge dormitory to accommodate some of the thousands of visitors at the 78th annual German Catholic Congress. About 20,000 of them stayed in a tent city erected near the Olympic Stadium.

WHISTLE BAIT—She's gorgeous Joi Lansing, and she's modeling a costume she's going to wear in a television play in New York. Joi's a gal it's easy to whistle at, especially when she lets her hair down, as she's doing in this photo for the benefit of anyone lucky enough to see her doing it.

WOODEN HEADS—Macabre is the word for this strange piece of sculpture, fashioned from gnarled tree roots and limbs in Frankfurt, Germany, by Karl Bacher. It depicts the grinning skull of death watching over the "Big Four" statesmen. They are President Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Macmillan, French Premier de Gaulle and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

HIGH WIND—Fighting against a 24-mile-an-hour gale are cute Aleyette Gendrom, left, and an unidentified girl as they hold their dresses atop the Empire State Building in Manhattan. Aleyette was visiting from Rimouski, Que., Canada.

FOR HARD KNOCKS—This two-piece corduroy set is just the thing for exciting playtime adventures. The clever design for tots is appiqued with dainty peti-point stitching on cobbler pockets and collar, and it comes in a choice of colors to please the eye.

TIME OF DAY—A clock, made of a hollowed-out sphere with inside pointers moving to show the time, is mounted on a house overlooking the harbor in Copenhagen, Denmark. At night, it's illuminated with the pointers showing up clearly against their white background.

WAR MEMORIAL—In marked contrast to the modern Diet (Parliament) Building in rear, a pitiful shack still serves as a home in Tokyo. Built on the ruins of B-29 fire bomb raids during World War II, the galvanized iron plates and wood stand on what was once the site of the office of the Japanese Imperial Army Chief of Staff.

DRINKING IT UP—The Duke of Bedford, left, and the Marquess of Bath are about to have a wee drop of liquid refreshment after competing in a race with tractors in Bedford, England. They raced on the Duke's estate, Woburn Abbey, which has been opened to the public, for a small fee. Even impoverished royalty has to earn a living, somehow.

WHAT NEXT?—A service station in Laxenburg, Austria, gives its patrons a little extra service. Couples dance to music supplied by a juke box inside the station's coffee shop as a loudspeaker system pipes the music outdoors.

THE CAT'S MEOW—Answering its frantic call are two gentlemen in Salina, Kan. The car-loving animal crawled in behind the grill of an auto, and then it wished it hadn't. It took this rescue team to pry it free.

SALUD, AMIGO!—Sprays from fireboats expressed New York Harbor's welcome to Moore McCormack Lines' new luxury liner Brasil when she arrived in Manhattan. The ship is believed to be the most lavish liner ever built for service between the United States and South America. She's sailing to Buenos Aires on her maiden voyage.

Stengle Busy Getting His Pitchers Back Into Shape

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

For the first time in his life, Casey Stengle isn't worried after losing five in a row.

His New York Yankees already have the American League pennant bagged, and with eight days to go before the world series opener in Milwaukee, Stengle has his pitchers back in form.

The champs lost three over the weekend in Baltimore. Friday they lost 5-4 in a five-run ninth inning Saturday it was 1-0, to Hoyt Wilhelm's no-hitter. Sunday it was 3-2.

But... Whitey Ford, making his second start after a two-week layoff because of arm trouble, blanked the Birds on four hits in his seven innings Friday. Don Larsen, sidelined by arm trouble since Aug. 16, blanked the Birds on one hit for his six innings of work Saturday. And Tom Sturdivant, off the disabled list and working for the first time since Aug. 12, gave up eight hits but only one earned run in his six innings Sunday.

So, Casey has a total of oneinnings and 1-0.

earned run over 19 innings off Ford, his southpaw ace, and Larsen and Sturdivant, his No. 2 and 3 right-handers behind 21-game winner Bob Turley. Just five days ago, Stengle didn't know if any one of the three would be of any help in the World Series.

Now he has a six-man staff ready. Right-handers Duke Maas and Ryne Duren are the other two.

The Yankees' only problems from now to Milwaukee are to stay healthy (infielders Tony Kubek, Gil McDougald and Andy Carey are okay after minor ills) and to help Turley win his 22nd. Turley gets his last shot at becoming the Yankees' biggest winner since 1934, when Lefty Gomez won 26, as the champs return to action at Boston tonight.

Only one game was scheduled in the AL Monday. Baltimore defeated Washington 2-0 on Skinny Brown's six-hitter. Bob Nieman's bloop double scored both runs in the third against Russ Kemmerer.

Philadelphia swept a two-night pair from Pittsburgh in the only National League action, 3-2 in 14 and 1-0.

Ridgway Explodes 36-6 Defeat Over Emporium

Ridgway High's Elfers, playing their first game before a large home crowd—exploded for a rash of touchdowns in beating Emporium 36-6 at Ridgway Friday night.

The victory was the first for Ridgway this season—they tied Kane 0-0 in their opener—and the first for head Coach Gene Abplanalp.

Alfred Pistilli made a 65-yard dash for one Ridgway TD. First was scored on a three-yard plunge by Eagen, second came seven plays later as Dave Bennett dashed 36 yards. Six plays after second period, Bennett copped another, Ridgway leading 19-0.

Ridgway, traveling to Brockway Saturday, will be at Warren October 25.

Weather Causes Cancellation of Stateline Finale

Weatherman played his last hand at Stateline Speedway Sunday afternoon, drowning out what was to have been the grand finale of a very successful season. Five-star motorcycle race, postponed once because of the deluge, was canceled for this year when the elements again turned the clay oval into a greased slide.

Stateline officials feel that they were fortunate to have been rained out so few times in a season which has seen the weather foul up so many scheduled outdoor events. Regular Saturday night late model shows fell victim to rain only three times, with two of these nights seeing a program partly completed before the soaking came.

Management of the Busti Oval takes this opportunity to thank the many fans whose regular attendance made possible the most successful season in the three-year history of Stateline. Next year should see another increase in the number of the fast late models which have formed the backbone of the exciting entertainment.

Drivers of this high-powered league will be honored at a banquet, to be held in Busti in mid-November, on which occasion the year's highlights will be reviewed, and the point monies will be awarded. Fans interested in attending this affair are urged to watch for announcements which will be forthcoming as soon as plans are completed.

Braddock Coach Tells What Makes Good Team Click

By FRED WALTERS

HARRISBURG (AP) — What makes a consistent winner, year in and year out?

"We've always had good material and we've been blessed with speed," explains Charles (Chuck) Klausning, head football coach at Braddock High where his teams haven't lost a game, and have been tied only once, since he took over in 1954.

"Also," he adds, "I have four fine assistant coaches. Our kids get a thorough job of coaching."

Asked further about his coaching secrets, Klausning offers these pre-game hints:

"First we take them to a local restaurant for a training meal the day of the game. Then we take them to a movie to sit down and relax."

Braddock opened this season this weekend with a 31-7 victory over Homestead.

The weekend's other top games: Thursday: Swoyersville 21, Plymouth 7; Cass Township 41, Nescopeck 0; Wilkensburg 26, Pittsburgh Peabody 6.

Friday: Mount Lebanon 40, Pittsburgh Westinghouse 19; Mount Carmel 25, Tamaqua 7; Kingston 20, Hanover Township 13; Milton 14, Lewisburg 6; Pennridge 26, Nesheim 13; Carlisle 12, Delone 0, Old Forge 6, Duryea 0; Scranton Central 20, West Pittston 7; Washington 20, Connelville 0; Curwensville 20, Philipsburg 0; Somerset 14, Bedford 7; Bradford 38, Hornell (N.Y.) 7; St. Marys 33, Kane 6; New Castle 24, Ambridge 6; Greensburg 6, Donora 0; Hempfield 33, Har-Brack 6.

Sizing Up World Series

First in a Series
By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Psychologically, physically and statistically, the Milwaukee Braves hold the edge over the New York Yankees in pitching.

Psychologically because Lew Burdette, who ran up 24 scoreless innings while winning three games against New York last year, again will be on the firing line. Manager Fred Haney probably will start right off with him instead of waiting until the second game as he did in 1957.

Physically because Whitey Ford, Don Larsen and Ryne Duren, three of Casey Stengle's most dependable hurlers, have done little to help the Yankee cause in the last couple of months. Ford and Larsen have been plagued by sore arms and Duren came down with a leg injury on top of a beaning.

Statistically because the Braves' Warren Spahn has lost none of his effectiveness, winning 20 or more games for the ninth time. Burdette is having his best year and Bob Rush and Carl Willey, filled in exceptionally well for the injured Bob Buhl. Conversely, Bob Turley was the Yankees' only reliable pitcher after Larsen and Ford were sidelined.

Led by Spahn, the major league leader, Milwaukee pitchers have gone the distance 69 times. Yankee mounders have 53 complete games. New York leads in shutouts — 20 to 15. Spahn has 23 complete games while Turley tops the American League champions with 19.

Twenty-two pitchers will be eligible for the World Series which starts in County Stadium, Milwaukee, Wednesday, Oct. 1. Before that date Stengle will decide which among right-handers Larsen, Murry Dickson and Tom Sturdivant will be on the sidelines.

Only nine hurlers, however, figure to have anything to say about the outcome. They are Turley (21-7), Ford (14-7), Larsen (8-6) and reliever Duren (6-4) for the Yankees. And Spahn (21-11), Burdette (19-10), Rush (10-6), Willey (9-6) and reliever Don McMahon (7-2) for Milwaukee.

By ED WILKS

Richie Ashburn has regained the lead from Willie Mays in the National League's tightest race for the batting title since 1954—the year Willie won on the last day of the season.

Ashburn, hitless in three games, swept back into the top spot with a 6-for-10 surge that paid off a two-night doubleheader sweep for Philadelphia over the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Phils won the opener 3-2 in 14 innings, then took the nightcap 1-0 as the Bucs swished to a pair of strikeouts records.

Those were the only two games scheduled in the NL Monday. Baltimore defeated Washington 2-0, a record-tying fourth consecutive Ashburn, whose lone bat titl came in 1955, picked up five points after going 4-for-4 in the second game for a .345 average. That's .001 ahead of the idle Mays, who stands at .342 after a hot weekend for San Francisco. Mays has five games left, Ashburn four.

Ashburn, 0-for-11 before getting his 200th hit Monday night, scored the lone run of the nightcap in the seventh inning. He beat out a bunt and stole second. Then he flashed all the way home as Pirate second baseman Bill Mazeroski struggled to gain his balance after making a nice stop on Ted Kazanski's infield hit.

Jack Sanford (10-13) was the winner with a seven-hitter for his first complete game since July 4.

Bobby Young, who had homered in the first inning, scored the tie-breaker in the opener for the Phils, coming home on Dave Philley's single off loser Ron Kline (13-16), who went all the way. Jack Meyer (2-6) won it in relief.

enn'a Archers re Preparing for Deer Season

Thousands of Pennsylvanians are readying equipment and practicing with bow and arrow for their separate deer season next month. In preparation for their "hunter's once" season, October 4-24, any bowhunters have been out on field archery courses. Over such a layout a woman moves from one shooting position to another until he is released 4 arrows at each the 28 targets placed in the manner prescribed by the National Field Archery Association. The shooting distances vary from 5 to 80 yards, and targets are large, small or medium in relation to the distance shot. An attempt is made to duplicate every situation that may be encountered by a bowhunter while hunting, thus promoting instinctive and accurate shooting.

The upcoming season will lack the eighth successive year as "stickbenders" have enjoyed a separate deer hunt in Pennsylvania. In 1957 a total of 55,554 persons purchased the special license for the exclusive October 5-12 "any deer" hunt, the first either sex-season held in the Keystone State. According to kill reports submitted, 368 deer (376 antlered—982 antlerless) were taken that season by the Indian hunting method. Archery continues its rapid increase in popularity, therefore it will not be surprising should 70,000 to 80,000 archers try for deer during the October 24 season this year. The increased accuracy of many bow and arrow shooters also suggests a larger kill during the 1958 season, the deer population being about as high as last year.

Bowhunters have been holding competitive shoots all over the Commonwealth this summer. The classic event was the State Field Archery Tournament. Probably the year's most colorful competition, the Pennsylvania Bowhunters' Festival, September 19, 20 and 21 at Yorkville, Sullivan County, will feature a live buffalo and a live deer hunt, as well as sporty competition in shooting life-size animal targets distributed through the woodlands.

Commendably, archer clubs across the Keystone State will hold bow hunter clinics on September 27, when safety and field rith hunting arrows will be stressed.

Heavy Artillery in College Football Coming Saturday

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The heavy artillery in college football rolls out Saturday—the likes of Ohio State, Oklahoma, Notre Dame and Michigan State—and you couldn't blame them if they approach their tasks with something less than enthusiasm.

The season is only a week old and already at least half a dozen dreams have been shattered. Teams like Maryland, North Carolina, Penn State, Georgia Tech, Duke and Texas A&M are picking up the pieces.

Ohio State, tabbed as the No. 1 team in the country over the protests of Coach Woody Hayes, gets its feet wet against Southern Methodist.

Oklahoma faces a toughie, West Virginia, which hasn't lost a Southern Conference game in years and years. Auburn, the national champion last year, plays Tennessee—still in the rebuilding stage—in the NCAA TV Game of the Week.

Notre Dame, which appears on the way back, plays the Big Ten's Indiana—a blood brother.

Michigan State, which is tabbed to fight it out for the Big Ten title with Ohio State, has what looks like an easy assignment against Wake Forest Saturday. The Deacons had lost 12 straight and were headed nowhere. Tommy Mont, who had taken some unpleasant lumps since taking over at Maryland two years back, thought he had a real ball club this time. Result: Wake Forest 34, Maryland 0.

That about eliminated Maryland from consideration as a possible Atlantic Coast Conference champion. North Carolina figured it might be ready to take over since North Carolina State, defending champion, was on the downgrade (someone said).

Instead, for the third straight year—and this one hurt—State hocked Jim Tatum's Tar Heels. The score was 21-14. Duke, another hopeful in this traditionally strong league, thought it might be in there. And Georgia Tech had hopes of winning the Southeastern Conference crown.

So South Carolina blanked Duke 8-0, and Kentucky shut out Georgia Tech 13-0.

Penn State had high hopes of winning the mythical Eastern championship and had a set-up against Nebraska. But Nebraska picked up the marbles 14-7.

That leaves Pitt, which belted UCLA 27-6, as one of the top candidates for Eastern honors.

The first day under the new scoring system was inconclusive. This year, if a team elects to pass or run for the conversion after a touchdown, it will be worth two points. A kick remains at one point.

Only one game actually was decided by the new system. That was the COP-California battle. COP, trailing three times, went for two after each of its three touchdowns and made good each time.

Lopez Likes Yankees for the October Series; Will Go on Hating Them Come April

By AL LOPEZ
White Sox Manager

"I Like the Yankees" is rather a silly title, because as a matter of fact, I hate the Yankees.

After all, I've been chasing them for a long time, both with the White Sox and earlier with the Cleveland Indians. I've been a big league manager for eight seasons, and in seven of those eight seasons, Casey Stengel's club has beaten me out of the pennant.

The only satisfaction I have is that I'm the only manager who has beaten Stengel out of a pennant in his 10 years with the Yankees, in 1954 when I managed Cleveland.

When I say I like the Yankees, I mean I like the Yankees to defeat the Braves in the World Series. I could have beaten the Yankees with the White Sox this year, except for the fact that our club got off to a miserable start and the Yankees got off to a remarkably fast one. From August 1 on, we played far better ball than the Yankees. The pay-off, however, is on 154 games, so this is not sour grapes.

Whitey Ford can win the World Series for the Yankees. He showed in Kansas City a couple of weeks ago that his arm was OK. Ford is one of the best and smartest pitchers in baseball. Ford had a peculiar sore arm, in that it ached him only when he threw his curve. The Yankees were fortunate in having that big lead so they could permit Whitey sufficient time for his arm to come around.

A normal Ford, plus Bob Turley, Duke Maas, Zack Monroe, Bobby Shantz, Johnny Kucks and Art Ditmar can win the Series. If Don Larsen is ready, that will be the icing on the cake. With the exception of Larsen and Tom Sturdivant, question marks at the moment, all the Yankee pitchers picked up in the final couple of weeks of the season.

Ryne Duren, who throws a ball as hard as anybody I ever saw, had trouble with his control after he had been out because of injuries, but pitched five scoreless innings against Detroit the other day and walked only one man. Veterans like Virgil Trucks and Murry Dickson could be of service when relief pitching is needed.

Where the Yankees definitely have it on the Braves is in maneuverability. Stengel has interchangeable infielders like Gil McDougald, Tony Kubek and Bobby Richardson, who play second, third or short with equal skill. He can use Elston Howard in the outfield or behind the plate and can do the same with Yogi Berra.

Yogi, who has played in more World Series games than anybody who ever lived and has hit more home runs than any catcher who ever lived, is even mentioned as a first base prospect against right-handers, particularly if Moose Skowron happens to be slumping.

Mickey Mantle is the one player in baseball today who can beat you with either speed or power. Norm Siebern has come along to be the first regular left fielder the Yankees have had in Stengel's 10 years with the club. And don't write off the ex-bowlingmaker Marine, Hank Bauer. Hank has hit in 14 straight World Series games.

So I gotta like the Yankees in October. Come next April, I'll hate 'em again.

★ GRAYSON'S SCOREBOARD ★

Series Is Yanks' Best Medicine for Boredom

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK (NEA)—Like millions of fans throughout the land, the Yankees are properly bored at winning their ninth pennant in 10 years.

The American League has been so soft for its champions that some of them, Mickey Mantle, for example, couldn't recall how many World Series they had been in.

"All but one since I came," said Mantle, when a telecaster vainly attempted to whip up some excitement the afternoon the New York club clinched its 24th flag in 38 years.

"It's 10 for me," said Yogi Berra, who was in one before Casey Stengel came around. "This is the easiest one we've had. The boys coasted, took it just routine."

But the money that goes with the winning end of the World Series will wake the Yankees up, and the fact that they blew to the Braves a year ago and figure to be on the short end in the betting for the first time in memory should give them added incentive.

WHITEY FORD'S INFLAMED elbow healing gives them a tremendous lift.

The Yankees winning by such a wide margin after staggering since Aug. 2 is a sad commentary on the American League. The way things are set up now it is difficult to see how the Yankees can miss winning for several more years.

Over-all they are a young outfit which is to be reinforced by Johnny Blanchard, the left-hand hitting catcher who is the best in the minors. The fact that Blanchard has to stay next trip is why Professor Stengel is toying with the idea of trying Yogi Berra at first base, where he could be alternated as an outfielder.

Giving you a rough idea of how well the Yankees are fixed for material, Gordon Windhorn, who led the American Association in batting, hardly will get a first look. While most any other big league outfit would be delighted to have him, Windhorn, a leg hitter, doesn't swat the ball far enough to play the outfield in the Bronx.

WHERE IS THE YANKS' opposition to come from in the AL? Despite Al Lopez' sustained optimism, the White Sox are too thin and lack the important money. Detroit has some young pitchers, but is without the big stick for which Briggs Stadium is built.

Tom Yawkey might just as well have poured all the dough he spent in Boston down the drain. And, as not a few near-sighters contend, the Red Sox probably would be better off without the cantankerous Ted Williams. Cleveland possesses little besides young pitchers.

Baltimore has some potential on its farms, but, like Kansas City, is several years away. Washington is a dead loss.

STRESSING THE AMERICAN LEAGUE'S plight is the fact that banjo-hitting Albie Pearson, the smallest athlete in the big show and an outfielder batting .275 for Washington, and Ryne Duren, the Yankees' fireball fireman who has walked 18 men in his last 11 1/2 innings, are the AL's only candidates for recruit-of-the-year.

Orlando Cepeda of the Giants will be the choice in a National League loaded with remarkable young players, starting with the Fraters Bill Mazeroski, a 22-year-old already being compared with all-time second basemen.

The National League has taken over the power championship and the immediate future.

Cool evenings are a thing of the past at the new Batavia Downs grandstand with the installation of a new development in heating large exposed areas. Banks of infra-red radiant heaters suspended above the entire seating deck emit sun-like rays which warm whatever they touch. The system was successfully tested late in the 1957 season. Now complete, it is in use whenever the temperature dips. The gas-fired heaters work on the same principle as the sun's rays. Heat is radiated downward from a ceramic catalyst. Tests show the area beneath the heaters to be as much as 30 degrees warmer than the outside temperature a few feet away. Officials from a number of other race tracks have studied the Batavia installation, first ever used at a trotting track. The catalyst which makes possible the unique heating method is a German invention.

Braves May Be Minus Services of Joey Jay

MILWAUKEE (M)—An injury, believed at first to be only minor, has robbed Joey Jay of a chance to pitch for the Milwaukee Braves in the coming World Series.

Jay, a 23-year-old right-hander, underwent surgery here Monday night on the fractured ring finger of his left hand and will be out for the rest of the season.

The finger was injured at St. Louis last Wednesday when Jay was struck on the gloved hand by Irv Noren's hot liner.

Manager Fred Haney had been counting on Jay as his third starter in the series.

Jay, 7-5 for the season with an earned run average of 2.13, was slated to start here tonight against Philadelphia but was replaced by Bob Rush.

Tennessee Man Goes Broke Trying Fruitless Crusade

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Fyke Farmer, whose efforts for a world government brought fleeting fame but scant success, abandoned his 12-year crusade Thursday to go to work. He's broke.

"I've sacrificed everything and have nothing else for the struggle," said Farmer. He is resuming his law practice here.

Farmer tangled with ex-President Truman over the Korean war, won a brief respite for doomed atomic spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg and even promoted a world constituent assembly at Geneva in 1950.

"I had to stop fighting for world government to make a living," said Farmer resignedly. "I can't voluntarily resign from life."

At an end are the lean Tennessee lawyer's two major attempts to further peace through a world government and by getting nations to accept international law.

The latter try ended June 9 when the U.S. Supreme Court refused to review lower court rulings that Farmer must pay his 1949 income tax of $4,750.

Farmer had declined to pay the tax, arguing much of it would be used to finance the Korean War. He maintained wars were illegal under international law. Farmer failed in two attempts to subpoens former President Truman to appear in court for questioning on the conduct of the Korean conflict.

The 57-year-old attorney's attempt to establish an international government drew some 500 persons from 45 countries to the world constituent assembly at Geneva. Farmer was elected president and a proposed world constitution was drawn up. Little more was heard from this group.

Oddities in the News

DETROIT (AP)—The Wayne County Board of Auditors has received a letter postmarked Washington, Ind. It contains $10 and this note: "Some years ago I lived in Wayne (Mich.) and made a couple trips to Wayne County General Hospital gardens at night and took vegetables. The Lord has saved me since then, and I want to make restitution."

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP)—Crime appears to have paid modestly here almost under the noses of lawmen. Bold safe crackers took more than $300 from a safe in the City Finance Co. office. The FBI office is four doors down the HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Vocalist Lory White says she still loves Sammy Davis Jr. but will sue him for divorce. Miss White, married to the bouncy singer-dancer for nine months, said: "I guess he isn't in love with me. I feel this will be best for him and best for me."

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Melissa Ann Montgomery, 10-year-old daughter of George and Dinah Shore Montgomery, will appear with her mother in an episode of the Danny Thomas television show. Both Melissa and Dinah will play themselves. And she has another job. "Just playing myself on my mother's program," Melissa explained. "We're type-cast."

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Barber Harry G. Gause had a close shave when a tractor-trailer broke loose and crashed into his barber shop a few minutes after he had left. No one was hurt.

BURNSVILLE, N.C. (AP)—Zona Siles is about ready to give up on the picket fence in front of his home. An auto swerved out of control on a curve recently, knocking the fence down for the 19th time in the last 10 years and for the third time in 11 months.

Timely Suggestion For Observing of Soft Water Week

Housewives now washing out stubborn bathtub rings and "glassware scum," and waging a losing battle against soap curds imbedded in freshly washed clothes are in need of a third hand. This invisible hand is modern water softening equipment, advises the Water Conditioning Research Council, sponsors of National Soft Water Week, September 20-28.

Serving the homemaker both economically and healthfully, the water softener does its job automatically, thoroughly and economically requiring little or no maintenance depending on the type softener used. Manually operated softeners require some attention; new fully automatics require a minimum of service from the owner and exchange softeners provided by a soft water service operator require

News of Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Consider the strange case of Alan Marshal.

Fifteen years ago, he was riding the crest of popularity. A handsome leading man in films like "Lydia" and "Tom, Dick and Harry," he seemed to have everything he needed—success in his profession, fame, etc.

He played opposite Irene Dunne in the immensely popular "White Cliffs of Dover," followed it with a comedy, "Bride by Mistake," with Laraine Day. Then disappeared from sight.

Fourteen years later, he is making another movie, "The House on Haunted Hill." What happened in between?

He gave some explanation during a lunch break as he was finishing the movie at Allied Artists. The suave mustache was gone, but he seemed as deucedly handsome as when he was playing opposite the screen's loveliest ladies.

"I underwent a kind of mental turmoil," he explained. "There was a long period when I didn't appear to be able to make up my mind. Producers would send me scripts and I'd read them. But I couldn't tell them whether I would or would not do the pictures. Gradually they stopped sending me scripts."

He didn't elaborate on the nature of his turmoil, but said with no ministration by the busy housewife.

The fact that some 85 per cent of the United States is located within a hard water area makes it essential that the homemaker realize the advantages to be gained from the invisible third hand. Hardness in the form of calcium and magnesium is deposited in water pipes, plumbing fixtures, and cooking utensils, thereby reducing service life and efficiency. Washing in hard water adds incentive to bacteria growth as soap curd formed by pesky minerals in hard water prove excellent shelter for bacteria.

Prospective home owners should investigate the advantages of soft water prior to installation of plumbing in order to obtain modern water softener piping at lower cost. This can best be achieved while the house is under construction.

an English reserve that he didn't think the public would be interested. He did say that he did not consult a psychiatrist, but felt he could cure his problem by himself. After a number of years, he felt that he had made the cure. "But then it was too late," he remarked. "The picture business had passed me by. The producers seemed to have forgotten me."

Unable to find work in films, he went east and got a few roles in TV dramas. He toured briefly in a play, then returned to Hollywood.

In recent months, his career has brightened. He made a good impression in a Perry Mason film, then did a G.E. Theater and a couple of Western TV segments. "The House on Haunted Hill" developed and there are other roles in the offing for him.

"I am pretty hopeful," Marshal commented, "though they don't seem to be making the kind of picture I used to do. Everything seems to be Westerns and horror pictures and juvenile delinquency. I was always pretty much typed as an Englishman."

"Actually, though I was born in Australia, I have lived here since I was 5 and went to school in New York. But I started playing the classics at an early age and I held onto an English accent because I liked it."

ROSES FOR THE LADIES

Shoppers in downtown Warren were pleasantly surprised Saturday morning to see Culligan Soft Water Representatives giving out free rose buds to the ladies. The beautiful red buds were a gift to the lady shoppers as part of the celebration of National Soft Water Week which runs from Sept. 20-27 inclusive.

An attractive tag attached to each rose showed a picture of Mrs. America of 1959 (Mrs. Helen Giesse of Cleveland, Ohio) and how she described Culligan's offer of free soft water service for 2 weeks which will be effective until October 4th.

Another surprise offered this week is a beautiful 26-piece set of Wm. Rogers Silver given with the purchase of Culligan's 1958 Home Owned Automatic Softener for unlimited soft water through the house all the time.

Other buildings projected for the future are a new library, a administration building, four dorms, auditorium, three classroom buildings, dining hall, kitchen and student community center, as well as an addition to the present gymnasium and swimming pool.

Maximum Payroll Taxes Are Likely Starting Jan. 1st

Harrisburg (AP)—The State Employment Security Bureau said this week the unemployment compensation fund is being drained so rapidly that employers can count on paying maximum payroll taxes starting next Jan. 1.

Paul J. Smith, acting executive director, said the current size of the fund is 183½ millions and could fall under 100 millions by the end of the year. The new figure, a record low, compares with 344½ millions at the start of 1958.

"If the recession is ending, it's not ending in Pennsylvania according to our latest figures," Smith told The Associated Press.

Employers are now paying an average of 1.98 per cent of their payroll in a tax to finance the fund. The maximum rate is 2 per cent.

The boost would hit hard some 27,000 employers now enjoying the minimum rate of eight-tenths of one per cent. About 74,000 firms out of 196,000 that pay unemployment compensation taxes are at the 2.7 per cent ceiling right now.
